Bina Puri Gets RM186 Million Contract For Project In Pakistan

KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 29 (Bernama) -- Construction company Bina Puri Holdings Bhd has received a letter of award for sub-contract works for a housing development project in Lahore, Pakistan, worth about RM186 million.

The contract was awarded by BRD Development Sdn Bhd, Bina Puri said in a statement Wednesday.

The project is part of master development plan (phase six of the Defence Raya Golf & Country Club, the first Pakistan's gated and integrated township, built around the greens of an 18-hole golf course.

The entire township spans 400 acres of landscaped luxury homes, a golf and country club, a retail centre as well as high-end business premises.

The construction period is 24 months from the date of commencement, Bina Puri said.

It added that with the latest project, the total book order of the group was RM2.55 billion, with 50 percent of the works from overseas.
