RESULTS REPORT

Recommendation	BUY
Target Price (MYR)	1.60
Current Price (MYR)	1.12

2Q FY11 revenue increased 4.3% vs 2Q FY10, whilst net profits grew 22.8% over the same period. BPHB's order book has grown very strongly over the past several quarters and now stands at about MYR 2.4 bn, enough to sustain a steady flow of profits for the next three years. YTD net margins expanded slightly from 0.9% to 1.0% as effective tax rates fell. Low operating margins have been a hallmark of the company for many years, though operating margins may grow slightly wider with the undertaking of MYR 800mn GDV in various property development projects in Klang Valley, Johor Bahru and Kota Kinabalu.

Risks to our recommendation and target price include: i) increases in construction materials cost, ii) rising interest rates as the company is highly geared, and iii) a sharp slowdown in the general level of economic activity in Malaysia or among the many economies where BPHB is active. This company has a global order book, which tends to diminish investment risk. However, a rising exchange rate could have adverse effects on overall profitability.

RECOMMENDATION

FTSE-BURSA INDEX MEMBERSHIP

We maintain our BUY recommendation on BPHB with a fair value estimate of MYR 1.60. Value investors will be attracted by the combination of respectable earnings growth at earnings multiples in line with the company's peers. Looking ahead, average ROE is heading to levels of 9-11%, well above the 7-8% average seen over the period eight quarters. Meanwhile, at current prices, the shares trade on 1.4x trailing book value and 1.0x current book value.

FBM KLCI	FBM70	FBMEMAS	FBMHIJRAH
No	No	No	No

Though BPHB's net margins have historically been quite thin, the company has a proven record of building its order book. The other aspect that may put off investors is the very high debt/equity ratio that the company has historically maintained. It should be noted, however, that the ratio of operating profits to interest expense is 4.3x for YTD 2Q FY11 vs 4.1x for YTD 2Q FY10.
