Bina Puri accepts East M'sia job

KUALA LUMPUR Bina Puri Holdings Bhd yesterday announced on Bursa Malaysia that its wholly owned subsidiary, Bina Puri Construction Sdn Bhd accepted a project worth RM11 million in East Malaysia.

Bina Puri said its subsidiary had accepted the letter of award from Arkitek Billings Leong Tan Sdn Bhd on Oct 2 for the construction of 24 units of two to three storey shop offices in Kota Kinabalu, Sabah.

The project was expected to be completed within 15 months.

“With the award the group’s current order book stands at RM2.38 billion,” it said. “The group has managed to secure new projects of up to RM1.34 billion so far in 2009 and is continuously bidding for new projects.”
