Bina Puri gets RM37m contract

KUALA LUMPUR: Bina Puri Holdings Bhd's unit Bina Puri Construction Sdn Bhd has accepted a letter of award from Sunsea Development Bhd for a RM36.76 million contract for construction works on a proposed commercial development in Sabah, boosting the group's current order book to RM2.32 billion.

Bina Puri said the contract was for the earthworks, piling works, and construction of pile caps, basement slab and basement retaining wall for the project in Kota Kinabalu. The development project is expected to be completed within nine months.

"The group has managed to secure new projects of up to RM1.15 billion so far in 2009, and is continuously bidding for new projects, both locally and overseas. The group is confident of securing (more) new projects before year-end," Bina Puri said.
