Bina Puri awarded RM81m deal in Thailand

KUALA LUMPUR: Bina Puri Holdings Bhd has been awarded a RM80.88 million construction contract in Thailand, which will raise its outstanding orderbook to RM1.86 billion.

The RM80.88 million contract was awarded by the Thai Consumer Distribution Centre Co Ltd to Bina Puri's Thai unit, Bina Puri (Thailand) Ltd, for the construction of Unilever Distribution Centre 2 in Bangkok.

The construction period is 14 months.

"This new award has marked another milestone in the long-term relationship between Bina Puri group of companies and its Thailand customers," said group managing director Tan Sri Tee Hock Seng in a statement yesterday.

Bina Puri has undertaken the construction of several warehouses and factories in Thailand since 2003.
