ngaliran masuk pendapatan.

"Oleh yang demikian kami

amat sukacita mengumumkan bahawa selepas kerja keras berbulan-bulan lama termasuk proses membida serta rundingan, akhirnya telah membuahkan hasil. Kami telah berjaya mendapatkan projek di luar negara bagi membina landasan kereta api di negara jiran iaitu Thailand," katanya dalam kenyataan semalam.

BPSB merupakan sebahagian daripada syarikat yang memenangi bidaan projek tersebut iaitu SPTK Joint Venture Company Ltd. (SPTK JV), syarikat hasil kerjasama antara BPSB dengan NPA Construction Co. Ltd. dan Tim Sekata Sdn. Bhd.

Pembinaan tersebut melibatkan jajaran sepanjang 13.68 kilometer termasuk pembinaan landasan sepanjang 12.38 kilometer dan dua stesen kereta api iaitu pembinaan baharu Stesen

Phu Kao Lat dan penaiktarafan Stesen Nakorn Ratchasima.

Kerja-kerja yang akan dijalankan termasuk kerja-kerja tanah, tembok penahan, tembok halangan kalis bunyi, pembinaan bangunan servis dan stesen yang turut meliputi kerja elektrik, mekanikal, jalan raya, kerja paip dan saluran serta utiliti lain.

Menurut Tee, penglibatan Bina Puri dalam projek pembinaan di Thailand bermula 2003 dan dalam tempoh itu, sejumlah 26 projek dengan nilai hampir RM2 bilion telah disiapkan.

"Dengan kontrak terbaharu ini, jumlah projek pembinaan bagi Kumpulan Bina Puri meningkat kepada RM1.9 bilion. Ia bakal menyumbang secara positif kepada aset bersih dan pendapatan Kumpulan," katanya.

Bina Puri menang bidaan projek HSR

KUALA LUMPUR – Bina Puri Holdings Bhd. (Bina Puri) melalui anak syarikat milik penuhnya, Bina Puri Sdn. Bhd. (BPSB) telah memenangi bidaan berjumlah 7.75 bilion baht (RM1.036 bilion) bagi projek membina landasan keretapi berkelajuan tinggi (HSR) bagi menghubungkan Bangkok ke Nong Khai.

Pengarah Eksekutif Kumpulan Bina Puri, Datuk Matthew Tee berkata, BPSB bersama NPA Construction Co. Ltd. dan Tim Sekata Sdn. Bhd. telah memeterai perjanjian usaha sama menubuhkan SPTK Joint Venture Company Limited bagi melaksanakan pembinaan projek tersebut.

Projek berkenaan merupakan hasil usaha sama antara Kerajaan Thailand dan Kerajaan Republik Rakyat China.

Matthew berkata, perubahan senario politik serta ancaman Covid-19 yang sedang melanda memberi impak besar kepada sektor pembinaan, terutamanya di Malaysia, namun ia tidak menjejaskan semangat syarikat untuk terus membida projek baharu dalam negara dan luar negara.

“Kami terus mencuba sebakiknya bagi memastikan pengaliran masuk pendapatan.

“Selepas kerja keras berbulan-bulan termasuk proses membida serta rundingan, usaha ini akhirnya telah membuahkan hasil,” katanya dalam kenyataan yang dikeluarkan di sini semalam.

Projek itu melibatkan jajaran pembinaan sepanjang 13.68 kilometer (km) termasuk pembinaan landasan sejauh 12.38 km.

Ia juga bakal menempatkan dua buah stesen keretapi iaitu

Stesen Phu Kao Lat yang merupakan stesen baharu yang bakal dibina serta stesen Nakorn Ratchasima yang akan di naik taraf.

Kerja lain termasuk kerja-kerja tanah, pembinaan tembok penahan, tembok halangan kalis bunyi, pembinaan bangunan servis dan stesen yang mana ia juga meliputi kerja elektrik, mekanikal, jalan raya, kerja paip, saliran serta utiliti lain.

Bina Puri mula memasuki Thailand sejak 2003 dan telah me-nyiapkan sejumlah 26 buah projek berjumlah hampir RM2 bilion di negara gajah putih itu.

Menurut Matthew, menerusi kontrak itu, jumlah projek pembinaan bagi Kumpulan telah meningkat kepada RM1.9 bilion.

KUALA LUMPUR: Bina Puri Holdings Bhd's joint-venture (JV) company has won a RM1.036bil bid for part of a high-speed railway project in Thailand.

The construction group announced yesterday the package was to connect regions in the Bangkok-Nong Khai section, namely, the Phase 1 Bangkok-Nakhon Ratchasima section.

The total length of the package is 13.68km, including a railway route measuring 12.38km.

It also includes building a new station (Phu Kao Lat Station) and renovating an existing station (Nakhon Ratchasima Station).

The scope of work includes earthwork, building a retaining wall, noise barrier, piling work, railway structures, building services, electrical and mechanical work, road work, piping and drainage work, and utilities.

The group said the bid was won by its wholly owned unit Bina Puri Sdn Bhd (BPSB) through a JV company, SPTK Joint Venture Company Ltd (SPTK JV).

BPSB, together with NPA Construction Co Ltd and Tim Sekata Sdn Bhd, had entered into a JV to form SPTK JV.

The high-speed railway project is a Thailand-China venture. "The contract value is 7.75 billion baht (RM1.036bil).

"A total of 26 projects valued at RM2bil have been completed by Bina Puri in Thailand since 2003," the group said in a filing with Bursa Malaysia.

Bina Puri said the contract is expected to

"We will show continued commitment to do our best in these trying times, especially by securing new projects."

Datuk Matthew Tee

contribute positively to its earnings and net assets. "With the award, the group's unbuilt book order stands at RM1.9bil," it said.

In a statement, Bina Puri group executive director Datuk Matthew Tee said: "The construction sector has been hit the hardest by the country's embattled economy, with the sudden change in government and outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic taking place one after another in the past year.

"Nevertheless, we will show continued commitment to do our best in these trying times, especially by securing new projects in both local and overseas markets to ensure the income flow.

"We are happy to announce that after months of tendering and negotiating, we have finally secured another contract in Thailand."

Tee said Bina Puri first ventured into Thailand in 2003 when it won a deal valued at over RM180mil to build an access road for the Suvarnabhumi International Airport in Bangkok.

Following this, the group secured some factory and warehouse construction work, as well as repair and upgrading work for the Malaysian

Embassy Complex.

From 2006, Bina Puri (Thailand) Ltd in a JV with Deva Property Public Co Ltd won a deal valued at over RM1.8bil for eight packages of the Baan Eua-Arthon Housing Projects by the National Housing Authority of Thailand, comprising more than 40,000 low-cost apartment units and some semi-D double storey houses.

These low-cost housing projects were built using the Half Tunnel Form System, which is known to be fast and cost-effective.

"Apart from the low-cost housing projects, Bina Puri also undertakes high-rise condominium and apartment projects in Bangkok for notable Thailand developers, including the S&S Sukhumvit Co Ltd and Areeya Property Public Co Ltd, with more than 3,500 units completed," added Tee.

The projects completed include repair and upgrading works for the Malaysian Embassy Complex in Bangkok, a warehouse and a three-storey office building with associated infrastructure works at Rojana Industrial Park, Ayutthaya, and the construction of "A Space Condominium" with more than 2,000 units in Bangkok.

KUALA LUMPUR: Bina Puri Holdings Bhd, through its joint venture SPTK Joint Venture Company Ltd, has bagged a contract package worth 7.75 billion baht (RM1.04 billion) for the high-speed railway project in Thailand.

Bina Puri, NPA Construction Co Ltd and Tim Sekata Sdn Bhd had entered into a joint venture agreement to form SPTK to undertake the project.

In an exchange filing yesterday, the civil and construction company said the project would connect regions in Bangkok-Nong Khai section (Phase 1 Bangkok-Nakhon Ratchasima section) with Khok Kruat-Nakhon Ratchasima section.

"With the latest contract, the group's unbuilt book order stands at RM1.9 billion to date," Bina Puri said.

State Railway of Thailand recently announced that SPTK was the successful bidder for the project.

The project is a cooperation between the Thai and Chinese governments.

Bina Puri executive director Datuk Matthew Tee said the construction sector had been hit the hardest with the sudden change in government and the Covid-19 pandemic taking place one after another in the past year.

"Nevertheless, we will do our best in these trying times, especially by securing new projects in local and overseas markets to ensure income flow.

"We are happy to announce that after many months of tendering and negotiating, we have secured another overseas contract from Thailand," he said in a separate statement yesterday.

The total length of the project package is 13.68km, comprising a railway route of 12.38km.

Bina Puri awarded RM1b Thai high-speed rail project

PETALING JAYA: Bina Puri Holdings Bhd's wholly owned subsidiary, Bina Puri Sdn Bhd has secured a THB7.75 billion (RM1.04 billion) package for Thailand's high-speed rail project connecting Bangkok to the Nong Khai section.

According to the group, it has entered into a joint venture agreement with NPA Construction Co Ltd and Tim Sekata Sdn Bhd to execute the project via a joint venture company SPTK Joint Venture Co Ltd.

The rail project is a cooperation between the Thai and Chinese government.

Bina Puri's executive director Datuk Matthew Tee noted that the construction sector has been hit hardest by the Covid-19 pandemic.

"Nevertheless, we will show continued commitment to do our best in these trying times especially by securing new projects in both local and overseas markets to ensure the income flow," he said in a press release.

The group stated the total length of the package is 13.68km, comprising a railway route measuring 12.38km and the construction of a new station, Phu Kao Lat Station as well as the renovation of an existing station, Nakorn Ratchasima Station.

The scope of works includes earthwork, retaining wall, noise barrier, piling work, railway structures, building services, electrical and mechanical work, road work, piping and drainage work, and utilities.

Previously, Bina Puri's first foray into Thailand was in 2003 with a RM180 million contract for the construction of an access road to Suvarnabhumi International Airport, Bangkok.

Subsequently, it has embarked on a number of projects in the country including industrial property construction, low cost housing and high rise condominium construction.

In total, the group has completed 26 projects in Thailand with a total value of approximately RM2 billion.

With the high-speed rail award, the group has an unbuilt book order of RM1.9 billion to date.

"The Bina Puri group has been actively participating in the tender for projects both local and overseas, and will make the appropriate announcements on further projects secured to keep investors and the public informed from time to time," Tee said.

To date, the group has completed 26 projects in Thailand with a total value of approximately RM2 billion. –
